Autism Delaware Inc.
Marketing Communications Manager Job Description

SUMMARY:
Delaware’s leading nonprofit, private agency serving the autism community seeks a qualified marketing communications professional to manage the organization’s outreach to its many constituencies, using all available digital and print channels. Working closely with senior leadership, the individual is responsible for developing an overarching marketing communications strategy driven by the mission to make Autism Delaware the state’s primary resource for information, resources, and support for families and individuals affected by autism, and for the professionals who serve them. The individual must be able to set measurable objectives that strengthen the Autism Delaware brand through “the 3 Rs”: recruitment of families and providers to the agency; retention of these same individuals and groups through ongoing programs and outreach; and raising money to support and grow the agency’s programs and services.

This is a salaried, exempt position reporting to the Director of Development.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS
1) Develop, implement, and direct a strategic marketing communications plan that integrates the goals and objectives of staff leadership across the agency.
2) Manage the agency’s publicity: Develop and implement a media relations strategy and schedule, seeking high-level placements in print, broadcast, digital, and other forms of traditional or new media; leverage existing media relationships and cultivate new ones; craft, disseminate, and follow up on press releases; serve as primary media contact for Autism Delaware; track and report on coverage; coach and prepare staff and other stakeholders for media engagement.
3) Create consistent, meaningful content on all social media platforms, including writing and editing social media posts, improving customer engagement, and promoting social media campaigns.
4) Develop, write, and manage content of Autism Delaware’s website (Wordpress).
5) Coordinate the messaging, writing, design, and production of all Autism Delaware corporate and program-based collateral materials, using outside vendors where appropriate.
6) Cultivate and maintain relationships with community stakeholders to support Autism Delaware’s mission and strategic goals. These stakeholders include, but are not limited to, medical professionals and other service providers who are in a position to refer families to Autism Delaware; community partners that support Autism Delaware through major gifts or employment of participants in the agency’s adult vocational program, known as POW&R (Productive Opportunities for Work & Recreation); state and other agencies that partner with Autism Delaware, such as the Division for Vocational Rehabilitation and the Department of Health & Social Services, and so on.

7) Research, identify, manage, and measure ROI from paid advertising opportunities.
